DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 16, 17 and 27-28, 39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bullerdieck (4,085,963).

Bullerdieck discloses a vehicle securable attachment comprising a path defining means; a carrier arrangement 16; a locking facility 28; wherein the carrier arrangement which is an adjustable seat rotates or swivels away from a conventional upright seating position reducing the exposure of an occupant under accident occurring conditions.

Two rails 22 are spaced apart which are located opposite the seat side. The path defining means acts as a runner, in the form of a saddle-like rail. The locking facility is a shear pin defining the position of restraining the seat from rotation as needed.

Bullerdieck teaches a seat 10 rearwardly swivellable independently of a seat anchor, a floor and a remainder of a cab of the vehicle, as shown in figure 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 18-22, 24-26 and 36-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bullerdieck (4,085,963) in view of Dunbar (3,589,466).

Bullerdieck teaches the claimed invention except for a railage layout which the carrier arrangement is rollably engaged. Dunbar teaches an automobile having a passenger compartment comprising upper and lower rollers 11 which are also overhead rollers as shown in Figure 2. As shown in figure 1, the rails have rectangular end profiles. Based on the teachings of Dunbar, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the path defining means of Bullerdieck to guide the movement of the carrier arrangement.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 16-22 and 24-28 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Notice of References Cited list references disclosing some features in common with the present invention.

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3616

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
